

Remember Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

Imagine a nuclear-free future.

On the 68th anniversary of the bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, join San Luis Obispo Mothers for Peace for an evening with three distinguished speakers, each offering visions for a nuclear-free future.

Friday, August 9 7pm

Steynberg Gallery
1531 Monterey Street
San Luis Obispo, CA

The event is free, but donations are welcome to support the work of Mothers for Peace.

Reverend Gyosen Sawada of Nipponzan Myoho-ji Temple will share his views on the connection between nuclear weapons and nuclear power.

August 9 culminates his Peace Walk from Vandenberg AFB to the gates of Diablo Canyon and his 3-day fast there. (sherry.lewis66@att.net or call 805-503-9022 for more information)

Chikako Nishiyama is a former government official from Fukushima Prefecture. She survived the earthquake and tsunami and has become a vocal opponent of nuclear energy.

Cecile Pineda will read from her powerful and poetic book - Devil's Tango: How I Learned The Fukushima Step by Step.
