

When Diablo Canyon Nuclear Power Plant ceases operation within the next few years, we will still be faced with the challenges of storage and transportation of the radioactive waste.

Learn about the options and challenges through an

EDUCATIONAL SERIES

presented by San Luis Obispo Mothers for Peace

Friday, October 20, 2017

Topic: On-Site Storage

- Presentation by Molly Johnson, Mothers for Peace:
 - Radioactive Waste Primer
 - Spent Fuel Pools
 - HOSS (Hardened On-Site Storage)
- Dry Cask Storage: Speaker – Donna Gilmore, SanOnofreSafety.org, San Diego, CA

Friday, November 10, 2017

Topic: Yucca Mountain – is it viable?

Speakers –

- Ian Zabarte, Principal Man, Western Bands Shoshone Nation Newe Sogobia, NV
- Judy Treichal, Executive Director, Nuclear Waste Task Force, Las Vegas, NV
- Steve Frishman, Technical Policy Coordinator, Nevada Agency for Nuclear Projects, Las Vegas, NV

Friday, January 19, 2018

Topic: Transportation of Radioactive Wastes

- Speaker - Kevin Kamps, Radioactive Waste Watchdog, Beyond Nuclear, Washington, DC

Topic: Consolidated “Interim” Storage

- Speaker – Diane D’Arrigo, Radioactive Waste Project Director, Nuclear Information Resource Service, Washington, DC

All presentations begin at 6:00pm
San Luis Obispo County Library, 995 Palm Street, San Luis Obispo, CA
<http://mothersforpeace.org>

